

Abstract

Security protocols are designed to allow a secure communication between agents over a insecure medium. The correctness of security protocol has been achieved through Schneider's Rank function, and the process algebraic approach by the PAT model checker to achieve the simulation of state spaces, graphs and the process traces.