

Abstract

The manners and etiquettes of the Prophet Muhammed (peace be upon him) has made such appreciable, significant and noteworthy impressions to the World which urged the erudite, knowledgeable and civilized Scholars of the World to embody and verbalize their perspective in a prosperous way in respect of the greatness of the Prophet of Islam. But some of the Orientalists due to lack of their knowledge and antagonism have revealed against the personality and character of the Prophet of Islam. This research scrutinizes those deformed and falsified image of the Messenger of God created by the Western Scholar Washington Irving while compiling his book on the biography of the Prophet (peace be upon him) "Mahomet and His Successors" whose first volume is edited as "Life of Muhammed". This study identifies the subject of fabricated guile, treachery, misconceive and misleading informations regarding the Prophet (peace be upon him) and the Islamic World in Western Society. West has cognized Islam as a serious threat. This research is basically an effort to examine the strategy and technique acquired by orientalisits while writing down the biography of the Founder of Islam. Major shortcomings in the Irving's methodology has been highlighted. Moreover this extended essay examines the explication of the mechanism that the formal nature, rigidity of his dogma's and Orientalistic creed and ideas influence his writing.