Abstract

Every Cohen-Macaulay ideal is height unmixed, but not conversly. In this dissertation we have reviewed several results in which authors give conditions for Cohen–Macaulayness of Unmixed monomial ideals. The thesis describes such major classes of monomial ideals which have the above said property along with simplified proofs of almost all the important results.