

Abstract

In this thesis, we discretized time fractional Caputo Fabrizio and Riemann-Liouville fractional derivatives to develop explicit and implicit finite difference schemes for numerical solution of a variable order diffusion type fractional partial differential equation. The finite difference schemes have also been analyzed for stability. The reliability of the schemes have been tested by considering different fractional order initial boundary value problems.