Abstract

The aim of this thesis is to solve variational inequality problem by introducing two new inertial viscosity-type subgradient extragradient algorithm in frame work of Hilbert spaces. The convergence results of proposed algorithm with relaxed π-monotone and Lipschitz continuous operator were proved. Weak convergence results were proved for both algorithms. Our results are generalizations of several results existing in literature.