

ABSTRACT

Pakistan always play very key role in world politics due to its geo-strategic location and geo-political environment. In cold war when bloc politics was its peak, at that time Pakistan came in lime light to counter the communism which brought come close ties with US. When former USSR invaded in Afghanistan then its gave strong message to US for stop their infiltration in the region. For this purpose proxy warfare conducted through Pakistan to stop their presence. Pakistan gained prominence and importance in the eye of super power due to its geo-Strategic location and provided the chance to play its decisive role in world politics. Communism consider the threat to Islam and propagation spread that Islam in danger so its moral and Islamic obligation of every Musllim to counter the communism with slogan of Jihad.Slogan of Jihad spread around the world specially in Pakistan. Infact misinterpretation of Jihad spread in the country which gave rise the extremism in the societal sphere. Pakistan suffered a lot in conducting proxy war and paid hig price as fanatic society which later on transform from liberal to extremism. Pakistan faced very bad repurcurrion in form of inculcation of culture of violence, rise of sectarianism. Different sects emerged as militant in nature which later on provides a strong base for the network of militancy in Pakistan. At that time Pak-US relations was very good ,military and economic aid provided by the US but this good relations suddenly changed in strain relations after the exclusion of soviet forces. Pakistan faced different sanctions but suddenly this strain relations got U-turn when 9/11 incident happened. Pakistan once again emerged as front line State in war against terrorism. A new phase of Pak-US relations started to counter the terrorism as Alqaeda and Taliban found big preparatory located in Afghanistan. War on terror launched by US and Pakistan was compelled to go with US otherwise would thrown into Stone Age. This was again a military regime which accepted to cooperate with her and offered her service as unconditionally which later on created very bad implications in the societal and security sphere of the Pakistan. Extremism, Terrorism and Resurgence of Radicalization emerged in the society and with it suicide attack, target killing and bomb blast terrorized the Pakistani society. Now Pakistan facing grave consequences in term of writ of the state has been challenged by the TTP in reaction of military operations .Pakistan conducted military operations in FATA which in reaction rise of
